

The Community of the Resurrection

in association with the

Reading Day

Tuesday 19th October, 2010

Using the Community Library and facilities of the Community of the Resurrection, Mirfield.

* Why not take this opportunity to spend a day of quiet reading and study? The day begins at 10.00am with a brief tour of the library and then you are free to stay for as little or as long as you wish. It's for anyone who wishes to take advantage of the resources and the quiet space.

* The day ends after Evensong for those who really do want to make a day of it. If you have to go at some other point in the day, then that's fine.

* Tea and Coffee will be provided and all are welcome to participate in the worship of the monastic community.

* Timetable:

10 am	Arrive: Introduction to Library
(12.00	Midday Office)
1 pm	Lunch
(6.30 pm	Evensong)

*A minimum donation of £5.00 is asked to cover costs. Please send a cheque with your booking form.

* Bring your own packed lunch or if you wish you can join the Community for a cooked lunch at a cost of an additional £ 7.20. Please indicate on the form if you would like lunch and include the meal cost in your cheque when booking.

* Make use of the grounds of the community for space and quiet reflection.

* Book early to avoid disappointment. Places are limited.

* We are unable to refund monies unless we receive due notice.

 To book a place on the day please detach the booking form below and return to: Father Thomas Seville, The Librarian, Community of the Resurrection, Stocksbank Road, Mirfield, WF14 0BW tseville@mirfield.org.uk

'The Community of the Resurrection'

The Library of the Community contains 70,000 volumes and periodicals and reflects the theological and spiritual interests of the Community since its foundation. Though not aiming to be a comprehensive collection, it contains a wide range of material covering subjects of particular interest to both clergy and laity. For further information about the library and about the reading days, please contact Fr Thomas CR at tseville@mirfield.org.uk or 01924 483315 or 494318.
